4.  (a) The brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, referring to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters; and/or (b) the brief fails to: (1) identify, for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, and/or (2) set forth the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).

Defective Appeal Brief

Box 10: Contd. The summary of the invention is defective because the summary includes reference characters and Figure numbers that are not found within the disclosure, (see lines 12-16 on page 4 of the resubmitted brief). See, also, amendment to specification and drawings filed May 25, 2005 and entered on June 21, 2005.

Box 7: Contd. The copy of claims does not include a copy of the claims as currently entered into the record and addressed within the final Office action. The copy of claims shall not include any claims not entered. The copy of appealed claim 8 appears incorrect as it recites language, which has not been entered into the file. See the Advisory action of June 15, 2006.Appealed claim 8 shall be written as presented within the amendment of December 08, 2005.
